

Access ECCRT eLearning training modules on your own LMS

More and more pharmaceutical companies are using their own Learning Management System (LMS) to grant access to their staff to up-to-date training. You can now purchase ECCRT eLearning modules and benefit from their ongoing maintenance.

Training modules on your own Learning Management System

- Trainings hosted on your own LMS: one system used by all staff members
- One system used to access all company trainings
- You keep full control on access to trainings
- You are informed by ECCRT as soon as an update is available
